WORLD WIDE REPUTATION.

White's Cream Vermifuge has achieved a world wide reputation as being the best of all worm destroyers, and for its tonic influence on weak and unthrifty children, as it naturalizes the acidity or sourness of the stomach, improves their digestion, and assimilation of food, strengthens their nervous system and restores them to health, vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood. The democratic party lost a valuable member and the world an all around good fellow, in the best sense of the word, when Congressman Amos J. Cummings died. Like so many other good fellows, Amos was a printer and newspaper man.
Republican Senators are on the run on the Philippine question, as their entire party will be before the close of the Congressional campaign.

REFLECTIONS OF THE COMMENCEMENT.

[By JERRE COLE, BARBOURVILLE]

The Commencement was a great success, The participants all were at their best, First there came Miss Thompson fair, With ruby lips and jet-black hair; Looked fairer than the queenly moon As she recited "Out of Tune." She told us how we all should be In tune, and live in harmony So no discords should smite the ear Of those who look and see and hear. Next Mr. H. B. Houk so young, Like Breckinridge, with his "silver tongue" Told us what he had to say, Of "Nature" and her devious way. "Nobility of Labor" next we had By Mr. Ewers, who seemed glad, He had the speech he had the power, To award to Labor her rightful dower. "Our Country and its destiny," Was next on program: did you see? How eloquent our Krueger grew, When he told us what he thought and knew, Of this country, the greatest one on earth, Which is ours, now, by right of birth? Then next the "Woof of History" came, By Mr. Chestnut with eyes aflame With pleasure, when he sought to show, The way for great events to go. Williams young, Dr. Roberts wise, The fire of youth still in his eyes, Which beamed out in a friendly way, Upon lassies sweet and lads so gay; Told us when to school he went, That none but his own coin was spent. For the treasured knowledge which he sought And which by years of toil was bought, The faculty, did he compliment, Especially the principal, somewhat bent By close confinement, toil and care, Which have begun to bleach his hair. The Doctor bade the A. M. rest, To "loaf" awhile to laugh and jest To take things easy for a while And not to frown, but wear a smile. The sheep-skins then were passed around By lawyer Williams, who took the ground, That in the president's absence, he Should step in his shoes so all could see, The thing was well and squarely done, That those entitled should have one. Miss Cox's violin was "in tune," But she reached her high "G" all too soon, She pitched her tune and octave higher, Than is the steeple of the spire, Of Mt. Vernon College, or tallest church, And left Miss Letcher in the lurch, But for that they are sweet girls With their dimples and their curls, And on me they made a hit Although the place I had to sit Was just behind a lady fat, Big feathers in her turned up hat, Completely did my view obscure, So when I left I was not sure, Just which one with, I was in love, I know she is a turtle dove.

So the only thing that's bothering me, I am married, don't you see. So now the writer of this effuse, Doth inflict this while the inmates snooze. They're "sawing wood" to fare-you-well, While the writer thinks this life is —well; I don't know what, but some folks say; That there will come a better day, When the drummer will lead a better life, Be home at nights with kids and wife, And in that sphere, he will remain And not sit up nights to catch a train. So now I bid you, one, and all, Adieu, until I come next Fall, And as you read this sad refrain I'll be asleep aboard my train.

CURES WHEN DOCTORS FAIL

I used a sample bottle of Herbine, found it helped me. Then bought two bottles, which completely cured me. I feel grateful to you for furnishing such a splendid medicine, and can honestly recommend it to those suffering from malaria, as it will surely cure them." Herbine, 50c. bottle at all druggists

OIL NOTES

The Rockcastle Mutual has engaged an expert driller.
The company recently organized at Livingston have secured a large territory.
Capt. Herndon, counsel for the Lancaster Oil Co., was out in Knox last week.
Joe Waters is still whooping up things through his paper, the Stanford Democrat.
James I. White is doing some good work in various counties for his two Lancaster companies.
The Pioneer Oil Co. are making preparations to commence boring for oil near East Bernstadt right away.
The Somerset Journal flings a small dig at a Stanford paper for being so "oily." The Journal is somewhat "greasy" itself and a mighty good paper to tie to.
Barbourville has sold its recent issue of bonds, account of street improvements, at above par. The same will occur here when we have gotten oil developments under way.
J. T. Cherry, J. G. Frith, Dr. Benton and other business men have formed a company and have secured many good leases in Brodhead neighborhood, and other localities.
We are in receipt of map of Lincoln county, issued by Lincoln Democrat of Stanford. The map is having a large sale, of which the promoter is deserving. Persons interested can see a copy by calling at this office.
A two million dollar company has been organized to build pipe lines and refiners in the Knox county field. The incorporators are mostly from West Virginia. Prominent among the names appears that of William Hix.

HOLDS UP A CONGRESSMAN.
"At the end of the campaign," writes Champ Clark, Missouri's brilliant congressman, "from overwork, nervous tension, loss of sleep and constant speaking I had about utterly collapsed. It seemed that all the organs in my body were out of order, but three bottles of Electric Bitters made me all right. It's the best all-around medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter." Overworked, run-down men and weak, sickly women gain splendid health and vitality from Electric Bitters. Try them. Only 50c. Guaranteed by all druggists.
Congress should provide the War Department with a system of book-keeping that will permit information concerning expenditures for any purpose to be obtained quicker. But perhaps it will be better for the people to arrange for a democratic Secretary of War. He wouldn't take two months to answer a Senate resolution asking how much money is being spent on the Philippines.

Adjoining Counties.

Elba Hall, who died recently in Madison county was buried in a coffin, which he made himself, some 25 years ago, and which he had been using as a wheat bin.
An independent pipe line company has been organized at Barbourville, with a $2,000,000 capital. It is composed of West Virginia capitalists.

Senator Scott, of W. Va., is getting a run for his money in his contest for re-election. Administration support doesn't seem to be helping him to any marked extent.
As consul general at London, with three times the salary of Pension Commissioner, H. C. Evans seems to have the laugh on the G. A. R.

H. H. HENNINGER,
Of Wayne county is a candidate for State
Treasurer, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

ANOTHER republican official is in trouble for trying to use public money to get rich quick. H. A. Barrows, who has been disbursing clerk of the Census Bureau for a year or so, has confessed to using between seven and eight thousand dollars of money in his hands in backing race horses and in stock speculation and been dismissed from office. Whether he will be criminally prosecuted has not yet been determined. The government will lose nothing as Barrows was bonded by a security company for $50,000, and the amount of his shortage will be paid as soon as the experts get through his accounts.

SENATOR PLATT, of New York, presented a petition from citizens of that State asking that Congress repeal the tariff on meats. One of the signatures after his name was a threat that every man who votes against the measure will at the next term, go home to his farm, though this threat was a joke. One man, republican, however, may discover that the sentiment is felt by thousands of voters.

SENATOR JONES, of Arkansas, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, said of the political outlook: "The leading issues of the Democratic national campaign of 1904 will undoubtedly be the same as those of the 1900 campaign, so far as anti-imperialism, the regulation of the trusts by law, the reduction of the tariff, which is the kindred question, are concerned."

FUNERAL services were held in the hall of the House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., Sunday afternoon over the remains of the late Representative Amos J. Cummings, of New York, who died Friday night. No man in Congress had more personal friends than Amos Cummings, and none ever deserved more.

It is both cowardly and inhuman to plead as an excuse for brutality toward the Filipinos their brutal treatment of American prisoners. The world expects barbarity from savage and semi-savage people, but it neither expects nor excuses it in those as highly civilized as Americans.

Admiral Schely is in a position to make a very creditable exhibition of silver and other souvenirs given him by his admiring countrymen, while those who sought to blacken his fame have received nothing from the same source but contempt.

Under the circumstances the postponement of the St. Louis Exposition for a year was the right thing to do. It will be a big thing and everybody wants it to be a big success, which it could not be if held next year.

Perhaps Col. Woodruff, counsel for Gen. Jacob H. Smith, who was court-martialed for his kill and burn order, will learn in due time that Smith's trial had more behind it than "hysterical public opinion."

The democratic Senators have pounded the republicans into talkativeness on the Philippine question, and they are not done with them yet.

Some of the Cubans who are after office talk as though they might be induced to participate in a revolution if they are not appointed.

LEVEL GREEN

We have nothing new to write excepting two blessings—good rain and warm sunshine, for which we say: "Praise the Lord," yet we do not believe that these are special Providences, but that they came about in the ordinary way, tho' we again say "Praise the Lord," for He sends directly or indirectly, every blessing.

Vegetation is fast coming to the front, and the few cattle and sheep left us, are preparing to live till fall.

W. H. and Sam Brown planted their entire crop before the rain.

The hundreds of dollar's worth of grass seeds sown in this part would have perished soon, for much of it had come to far to go back and it could come no further. Oats, tho' only a small crop is sown, have done no good yet.

The peach crop is very light and apples "few and far between," plums and cherries more hopeful.

Wheat has begun to look up and the prospect for three-fourths of a crop is brightening. Uncle Bill, my old brother, has the finest wheat prospect in all these diggings.

The mule buyers failed to materialize, I suppose England thinks the Boers are conquered, and that she needs no more of our long-eared stock.

Our sick people, J. M. Hurst and Mrs. Goodpaster, seem to improve but little if any at all. Each of these has been a patient sufferer from excruciating pain for more than a year.

Sam Brown, accompanied by his young wife, has been visiting his former haunts on Crooked creek. You see, it will soon be time to visit trustees. I used to be in the fight but ill health and plenty of money admonish me to quit the profession.

I shall help uncle Cam Sowder this year, Cam has a light job (for I've worked at it) but one that will never be completed while one of Adam's race inhabits this side of the Jordan. I never could tell for the life of me why so many men don't like to "earn bread by the sweat of the face." It is indeed an honest way, and no one can deny that the command or law is ancient, and before engaging in the occupation we know the wages that we will receive.

Yours, in better health,
BUCK VARNON.

TO THE BRETHREN OF ROCK-CASTLE COUNTY.

The Kentucky State Board, on being informed of the destitute condition of parts of Rockcastle and adjoining counties, have exercised a great Christian spirit in procuring an evangelist as they have done, and placing him in the field. It is true that there are parts of Rockcastle and adjoining counties, where the young people are neglected and deprived of the prayer meeting, the endeavor meeting, the Sunday-school and the church. They are starving for the bread of life and not even a kind word has ever been sent them. Their young hearts would leap for joy at hearing the sweet story of Jesus. The evangelist will visit and preach in every town, village, school house, and church house in the county where an opportunity is offered; and also organize the above named meetings at every place if possible, putting all his time into the work. Let us therefore not have it said of us that we are not willing to assist the Board in doing this much needed work here in our midst. But let us as a band of earnest Christian workers for Christ, join in and organize our country into a co-operation. Feeling sure that our brethren will co-operate with us, we have decided to hold the first meeting on the first Saturday in June 1902, in the church of Christ at Livingston Ky., asking each Pastor in the county to arrange with his congregation to send a delegation and have them instructed as to the amount their respective congregations are willing to give monthly. Our programme which will appear later, will show the names of some of the best singers and speakers in the country, who will be present to entertain and encourage us on that day. We cordially invite all to attend. Preparations will be made for accommodations.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 30, 1902.
Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.
About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.
I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but I've hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.
I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain

"The Mirror," Cynthia, Ky., pays the following high tribute to the Rev. J. J. Haley:

J. J. Haley, the present pastor of the Cynthia Christian church, is a native Kentuckian, in the prime of life, being born in Rockcastle county in 1851. Although yet comparatively young, he is a man of wide and varied experience. At the age of 23 he was sent as an evangelist to Sydney, New South Wales. He remained for about 11 years in Australia and New Zealand, preaching for two years in Sydney, two and a half years in Dunedin and six years in Melbourne. While in Australia he established the Australian Christian Watchman. Afterwards he preached one year in San Francisco, when he took charge of the church at Midway, Ky. In 1890 he went, in response to a call of the Foreign Mission Board, to Berkenhead, England, where he remained until 1894. Returning from England, he accepted the pastorate of the Cynthia Christian church January 1, 1895, and has continued with that church continuously since that date. He has been connected with several christian papers as writer and as editor. As a writer he is recognized as one of the foremost of the disciples, among whom he enjoys a national reputation. His pulpit utterances are strong and forceful. His work here has been a success. The congregation has had a steady growth, numerically and spiritually, and is stronger and better prepared for aggressive work than ever before in its history."

The Kentucky and Mississippi Oil Co. have incorporated with a capital of $30,000 to operate in Laurel county.

At the last session, of the Legislature, there was passed a law in regard to Ginseng gardens, Orchards and other private inclosures. This law requires a seven feet fence around such inclosures, and any one trespassing, and for the conviction of same means a term in the penitentiary.

SMALL-POX.—About 4 1/2 miles north of Bee Lick, on the Rockcastle side, the family of Green Adams has small-pox, and also the neighboring family of John Roberts, who lives just across on the Lincoln side. The board of health of the two counties have taken steps to establish a quarantine, and to take care of the patients.

On last Saturday Mr. Fritz Krueger and John Grider became engaged in a little altercation over a settlement. Willie, the youngest son of Mr. Krueger and Jack McKinney, who were present, took sides and for some time, there was some pretty lively knocking, but fortunately no one was hurt. Willie Krueger, Mr. Grider and Mr. McKinney were each fined one cent, and the cost.

O. H. Barker, of Lebanon, supposed to be a representative of the Pittsburg Cold Storage Co., has done a "plenty" for some of the Rockcastle merchants. Our hotel man W. J. Rider loses about $200 and 50 egg cases, J. Thos. Cherry, Dunn & Hamm; C. H. Frith, Albright & Adams, Martin-Sowder Co., and Woodyard & Hilton, of Brodhead, W. M. Nicely, of Hansford, and other merchants throughout the county, have lost in all about $700.

KY. PRESS TRIP.—Full arrangements for the annual meeting of the Kentucky Press Association and the summer outing were made Saturday afternoon when the Executive Committee had a long session in Louisville. Those present were President Harry McCarty, of the Nicholasville Journal; Vice President T. G. Watkins, of the Courier Journal; Secretary R. H. Morningstar, of Bowling Green; Chairman of the Executive Committee Paul M. Moore, of Earlinton; Milt Conley, of Ashland; Louis Landrum, of Lancaster; C. C. Howard, of Hodgenville; E. A. Gullion, of Newcastles; J. H. Westover, of Williamstown, chairman of the Legislative Committee, and R. W. Brown, of Louisville. After long discussion and a close vote it was decided to hold the annual meeting of the association in Owensboro early in July. The Henderson route has offered a special train to carry the editors to and from meeting place. The annual outing will start from Owensboro immediately after the meeting of the association. The route will be this year from Owensboro to Cincinnati, thence to Sandusky, O., on to Johnson Island, Put-in-Bay and Detroit, Mich. From Detroit the route will be to Mt. Clemens, Port Huron, Star Island, St. Clair Flats and back home again, with a few side trips thrown in. There are now 150 members of the association, and a committee will pass carefully on all future applications for membership, as well as the eligibility of all applicants who may desire to make the trip.

Democratic Senators deserve the thanks of the party, and of the country, for the able manner in which they are getting the facts about the Philippines before the public. When the debate on the Philippine bill began the republican Senators poohpoohed anything that the democrats could say about abuses in the Philippines, and announced that the democrats would be allowed to do all the talking, but now they have changed their tune, and their ablest speakers are preparing speeches in defense of the administration. Why? Because the democrats have made it plain that the administration needs defense, and needs it bad. They are afraid to bring Maj. Gardener, the army officer who was governor of the province of Tayabas and whose confidential report to the War Department, which Secretary Root tried so hard to suppress, made such ugly charges of cruelty and inhumanity against the military authorities in his and other provinces, to Washington to testify, and afraid to directly refuse; so, they are temporizing by saying that they will bring him after Gen. Chaffee makes his report on Gardener's charges—the scheme is to keep Gardener away until after Congress adjourns. It is reported they intend to have him court-martialed and imprisoned. Another thing the republicans are unwilling to do is to answer the charge that the Philippines are costing many more millions than the public has any idea of. If the charge were not true it would have been answered by official figures in twenty-four hours after it was made. The democratic Senators have the republicans on the run and they will keep up their hammering on Philippine abuses.

Mark Twain's Cousin,

G. C. Clemens, of Topeka,

Kan., the noted constitutional lawyer, who bears so striking a resemblance to Mark Twain, (Samuel B. Clemens) that he is frequently taken for the original Mark, is a man of deep intellect and wide experience. He is considered one of the foremost lawyers in this country. In a recent letter to the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Mr. Clemens says:

"Personal experience and observation have thoroughly satisfied me that Dr. Miles' Nerve Tonic is true merit, and is excellent for what it is recommended."

Mr. Norman Waltrip, Sup. Pres. Bankers' Fraternal Society, Chicago, says:

Dr. Miles' Pain Pills

are invaluable for headache and all pain. I had been a great sufferer from headache until I learned of the efficacy of Dr. Miles' Pain Pills. Now I always carry them and prevent recurring attacks by taking a pill when the symptoms first appear."

SPRING AILMENTS.

There is an aching and tired feeling; the liver, bowels and kidneys become sluggish and inactive, the digestion impaired, with little or no appetite, no ambition for anything, and a feeling that the whole body and mind needs toning up. The trouble is, that during winter, there has been an accumulation of waste matter in the system. Herbine will remove it; secure to the secretions a right exit, and by its tonic effect, fully restore the wasted tissues and give strength in place of weakness. Price 50c. at all druggists.

DON'T NEGLECT THE FRUIT.

Some farms are still seen with but little or no fruit on them. This is an ill business. It means either a species of farming that is bad right now, or else a species that is making for destruction in the future.

A farm without a garden, a farm where neither flowers nor fruit are seen to amount to anything may be a perfect paradise for hogs, but it is not a very good sort of place for making the most of the human.

What we recommend is that which every farmer who has a family, and who possesses the proper anection for it, should gladly provide; and though it is too late to do much in this line now too late certainly where nothing has already been done, it is not too late to make for shame at the, in the main, unnecessary poverty, and not too late to stimulate to better things another time.

Appreciation of the necessity for the like, under the conditions now prevailing generally in civilized countries, should be enough to put every farmer in the United States right about this matter; so securing for use in his home choice and fresh fruit during the entire year.

The apple has range of kinds to easily do duty all through the winter, and on until the strawberry ripens.

From the strawberry forward there will need be no pause of things delicious and fitted to give the doctors a rest—raspberries, blackberries, peaches, grapes. All are healthful, and most of them can be eaten at pleasure and, as a rule, without injury.

Who would care to visit or live on a farm without all or most of these fruits? Where or what is the attraction on a farm without them?

All the kinds seem to come they do come just when they should come.

As the growing season closes, the grapes are at their best. They rank among the most healthful of fruits. They abound when fevers prevail, and they seldom fail.

It seems like Kenying the goodness of God to live on and own a farm, and yet be without a first-class garden.—Farm and Home.

The first movement towards the adoption of a system of wireless telegraphy by the United States Government for communication between fixed bases was made today when Gen. Greely, chief signal officer, opened bids for the supply of such systems for service in Alaska, where the ordinary cables fail in important points owing to climatic conditions. The principal connection wanted was across the waters of Norton Sound, connecting Fort Davis, Cape Nome, with St. Michael either by one circuit or by a relay on Stuart island. Five bids were received and another bid is on the way from the Arco-Slaby Company, of Germany. Gen. Greely was pleased at the responses, but would not undertake to pass on the bids, and they will be referred to a special board of signal corps experts for consideration.
